

INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

DEPARTMENT OF SETTLEMENT ARCHAEOLOGY

M.A.PROGRAM OUTPUTS:

- To gain expertise in archaeological method and theory and develop ability to work in an interdisciplinary environment.
- To become skillful in accessing and evaluating archaeological data regardless of chronological and geographical boundaries while specializing in a specific period and region,
- To be able to look at the past as a whole grasping the interdisciplinary nature of archaeology and its relationship to other disciplines,
- To be able to express what he/she learned both orally and in writing,
- To have excellent command of both traditional and modern research methods,
- To have the infrastructure to follow up to date publications and other researches in the area of interest,
- To be aware of professional ethics and to have the ability to adopt them,
- To possess technical skills that is necessary in fieldwork,
- To be aware of social, environmental and economic impact of his/her professional activities,
- To be able to conduct work in a team and to be able to lead a team when required.

M.A.PROGRAM AIMS:

- Graduates of M.A. program in Settlement Archaeology continue their academic careers in PhD programs in archaeology and related areas both in Turkey and abroad,
- Graduates of M.A. program in Settlement Archaeology successfully take charge in related positions of public institutions,
- Graduates of M.A. program in Settlement Archaeology work in urban and regional archaeological projects as experts,
- Graduates of M.A. program in Settlement Archaeology work as entrepreneurs in private sector with their technical equipment (skills),
- Graduates of M.A. program in Settlement Archaeology work as senior executives in related Ministries, Municipalities, Museums and Conservation Committees,
- Graduates of M.A. program in Settlement Archaeology work in archaeological project teams in the areas of their specialization.

INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

DEPARTMENT OF SETTLEMENT ARCHAEOLOGY

Ph.D. PROGRAM OUTPUTS:

- To gain expertise in archaeological method and theory and develop ability to work in an interdisciplinary environment,
- Our PhD graduates acquire a degree in Archaeology,
- To become skillful in accessing and evaluating archaeological data regardless of chronological and geographical boundaries while specializing in a specific period and region,
- To be able to look at the past as a whole grasping the interdisciplinary nature of archaeology and its relationship to other disciplines,
- To be able to express what he/she learned both orally and in writing,
- To have excellent command of both traditional and modern research methods,
- To have the infrastructure to follow up to date publications and other researches in the area of interest,
- To be aware of professional ethics and to have the ability to adopt them,
- To possess technical skills that is necessary in fieldwork,
- To be aware of social, environmental and economic impact of his/her professional activities,
- To be able to conduct work in a team and to be able to lead a team when required.

Ph.D. PROGRAM AIMS:

- Graduates of Ph.D. program in Settlement Archaeology have a successful academic career at universities in research, education and teaching,
- Graduates of M.A. program in Settlement Archaeology work as senior executives in related Ministries, Municipalities, Museums and Conservation Committees,
- Graduates of Ph.D. program in Settlement Archaeology participate in archaeological project teams in the areas of their specialization and act as directors,
- Graduates of Ph.D. program in Settlement Archaeology work as entrepreneurs in private sector with their technical skills.